Vacancy International

FUNCTION DESCRIPTION

The International team makes sure that the international students at Group T find their way in Leuven's student life just as good as the Dutch-speaking students. They make sure the international students get to know new people and are provided with fun activities. Both Dutch and international students can be a member of the International team.

WHO WE ARE LOOKING FOR

For the International team, we are looking for passionate people who like to be involved in the organization of a whole range of different types of activities. This is a position where interaction with students is key and you should not be shy of bit of social interactions.

WHAT WE HAVE TO OFFER

In the International team you will learn to work together in a team where your creativity can grow. You learn to communicate efficiently within the praesidium as well as with other organizations. In this way you will expand your network within Leuven but also internationally.
