 - Emily Gyselinck: “Weledelgezopen KZM ”
 - The full KC22: “Weledelgeschoolde Kiescomité”
2. All official communications with the Neutral Committee should be by e-mail to kiescomite@industria.be or kc@industria.be.
3. Every team, both serious and fun teams, are forbidden to make deals in the name of Studentenvereniging Industria vzw, Industria vzw or Industria. It is also forbidden to make deals that affect our union in the short or long term.
4. §1. A fun team is recognised by the KC22 if they organise at least one activity approved by the KC22.
§2. Industria's maximum contribution per fun team will be determined based on the number of registrations on the registration deadline. This amount will be reimbursed before May 31, 2022

5. The fun team(s) will receive sponsorship if and only if they submit an account or a number of account to the KC22. The total amount of the account(s) must correspond to the amount made available by Industria, within a margin of €5 (FIVE EURO).
6. §1. It is strictly forbidden to contact companies before having received a list of "companies not to contact". This list must be requested by each team via an official mail to kc@industria.be. The list is flexible and can be modified. Any change will be communicated by the KC22.

§2. If a team nevertheless contacts a company that is on this list without the explicit, written consent of the KC21, the team may be forced to end its cooperation with this company.
7. Each meeting of a team (serious and fun team) within the buildings of KU Leuven Campus Group T must be announced to the KC22 at least one day in advance. An emergency meeting cannot take place in the KU Leuven Campus Group T buildings.
8. Each team (serious and fun team) must keep an open accounting. This means that the accounts must be available for inspection by the KC22 at all times. These accounts must be digitally available to the KC22 at the latest two hours after request.
9. Phoning with official KU Leuven Campus Group T telephones is strictly forbidden in rooms GT 01.4.01/1, GT 91.P1.13 and GT 92.P2.06. These are the Industria room, the Kursusdienst and the support room, respectively. Any other telephone calls with such devices must be reported to the KC22.
10. The serious teams must be present in their entirety at the Overdrachtskantus. All members of a serious team should wear clothing suitable for a different gender than in which they currently identify themselves.
11. §1. A location request can be prepared by any serious team but must be submitted by the KC22. In the event of a conflict, the KC22 will decide who will have priority. No further discussion will be possible on this.

§2. The chosen location should be shared by the KC22 to all teams, both serious teams and fun teams, regardless of the origin of the request.
12. In addition to Art 132 of the internal rules of Industria, depending on the corona measures in force, an appropriate activity will be provided for the counting of the votes. The candidate-praeses and candidate-vice-praeses of each serious team and fun team must be present at this activity.
13. §1. On activities of both serious teams and fun teams selling foods or drinks, the products are always first offered free of charge to the entire KC22. After approval of the KC22, the activity may proceed.

§2. Members of the KC22 may participate in all activities organised by the team(s) free of charge.
14. Each member of an upcoming team (serious and fun) must give Gerda a compliment every day during the period of active promo and election week. Violation of this rule will be followed by a sanction.
15. As a clarification/expansion of the electoral rules:

- As an extension to Article 82: Each serious team of KC22 should, in addition to the persons mentioned in Article 82, put forward one person for election as Vice-Education
- As an extension of Article 155 of Industria's Internal Regulations, online activities of Industria are also considered to be partially neutral territory.
- There should be no material from each team (serious and fun team) on partially neutral ground.
- No passive campaigning is allowed until the passive week on partly neutral ground.

16. Failure to meet a deadline will be punished by the KC22. The penalty will be decided by the Election Committee. Teams must respect the following deadlines:

- 14 March 2022: First registration of serious teams.
- 3 April 2022: Dates and locations for all activities of all teams.
- 7 April 2022: Second registration of serious teams.
- 17 April 2022: Registration for fun teams.
- 24 April 2022: Finished script for all activities of all teams.
- 17 April 2022: Application for disc IV for the serious teams.
- 24 April 2022: Application for discs II and III for the serious teams.
- 1 May 2022: Final list with members of the serious teams.
